PRESS RELEASE

OLLO-CURATED NIGHT ON MARCH 29 AT FBI SOCIAL

- BROADCAST LIVE ON FBI RADIO
- DEBUT OF NEW OLLO LIVE LINEUP

Live bands on the night: ollo // Bad Thoughts // Worng

Following their successful EG1/EXT project at the sellout Underbelly Arts festival on Cocktoo Island last year, long standing Sydney electronic act ollo are proud to announce a specially curated night at FBI Social.

THREE DEBUTS ON ONE NIGHT

On March 29th ollo will indulge you in DJ sets of ultra rare coldwave, minimal synth, and German New Wave records as the entrée and dessert to a feast of live contemporary synth experimentation from ollo, who will be debuting their new live lineup. You'll also hear the Sydney debut of two Melbourne bands, Bad Thoughts and Worng.

ollo's new live lineup features:

Alex Crowfoot on keyboards and vocals; Dale Harrison (The Herd) on bass
Pere Chiara (Aerial Maps) on drums; Sofie Loizou on keyboards and Lars Chresta creating live visuals

Alex and Lars will also be DJ some of the ultra rare underground tracks from the late 70s and early 80s that informed the sound of their upcoming album (which will be on Metal Postcard, is called "Ape Delay", has freshly arrived from Björk's favourite mastering engineer Mandy Parnell, and is now in production)

Both support bands are side projects of one of ollo's favourite bands, The Emergency.

Bad Thoughts swim through a tense and emotional sea of plaintive synths, with vocals from Milo and sometime Emergency member Daina Fanning

Worng (pronounced 'wrong') writhes in an expansive bed of hissing bleeps and squelches through improvised journeys around Morgan's custom modular circuitry.

Not bloody bad for ten bucks, we reckon.

March 29 FBI Social Kings Cross Hotel William Street Sydney.
8pm-1am, $10
